Long Term English Program P-1A

LTE NOMINATION FORM

NOTE: THIS PAGE SHOULD BE FILLED OUT ONLY FOR THOSE APPLICANTS WHOM YOU ARE NOMINATING TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LONG-TERM INTENSIVE ENGLISH TRAINING PROGRAM.

CANDIDATE

HOME COUNTRY

If approved by the Candidate Review Committee panel, Long Term English candidates may be required to attend an intensive 20-25 week pre-academic program to improve their language skills.

Please note: the Long-Term English program is offered in addition to the regular pre-academic English programs. Candidates being nominated for Long-Term English should have sufficiently poor English skills as to make it necessary for them to receive this intensive 20-25 week training prior to the beginning of the program.

1. Please describe the candidate's English language abilities (particularly listening and speaking skills), based on your formal and informal interactions with him or her.

2. Please state briefly why you are recommending this candidate for the Long Term English program.

Please also complete the Nomination Committee Report P-1, Recruitment Report P-2, and the Application Checklist P-3 as well for this candidate. Please rank this candidate among the total candidates submitted.

Nomination Committee Report P-1

4. What is the relevance of the candidate's position and organization within the context of his/her country and its development plans?

5. What kind of academic and professional experience would be most useful for the candidate's future work?

6. Discuss the candidate's leadership potential and commitment to public service, and the impact he/she may have on his/her home country as a result of this fellowship.
